BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.

Drs. B. & R. are the men to consult, they are unquestionably acknowledged to be the champion and sad king of venereal diseases, and the only Doctors who receive Monthly Reports from the old world; they have been accustomed from an early age of youth to witness the various diseases which afflict mankind, and to watch the progress, having, in every sphere of life, from the humble abode of poverty to the mansions of the wealthy, and having ascertained beyond a doubt the vast suffering of humanity, they determined to select the generative system as their particular study, and to devote their whole attention to the alleviation of the diseases of these important functions. MEDICAL.

EVERY FAMILY SHOULD HAVE A HYDRO MAGNETIC SIPHO, for the prevention and cure of all diseases of the Urinary and Sexual organs, the Kidneys, Stomach, and Bowels, and prevention of conception. This Sipho, when used, prevents and cures Nervous Debility, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Prolapsus Uteri or Falling of the Womb, Obstructed Menstruation, and all complaints of the Urinal Organs, Kidneys, and bowels.

The Sipho enables all to prevent and cure disease, without recourse to drugs, herbs, pills, or nostrums. It is perfectly safe; it will last a life-time without getting out of order, and never fails; it is simple, and can be used by a child. It acts magnetically and chemically, removing, absorbing, and destroying all morbid secretions and poisonous matter in the system. It is pleasant to use, imparts strength and life to the body, enlivens the spirits, imparts cheerfulness to the mind, and gives a tone and elasticity to all who use it, that will last for years. It enables those whose health and circumstances do not permit an increase of family, to regulate or limit their offspring, but must not be used during pregnancy, as it would produce miscarriage.

The Sipho is an important private and confidential instrument, for the married and those contemplating marriage; also, full directions for its use.

T U R E OIL.

BIG ISLAND, Bedford, Va., Nov. 1, 1854.

MESSRS. DOVE & CO.—Gentlemen: I used about one-fourth of a bottle of your Turf Oil upon the back of my horse, the worst back I almost ever saw, entirely raw, a place nearly as large as my hand, and this single application (I only applied it once) cured it up entirely and permanently. I really was surprised at the quickness of its curative properties, and I think it more prompt and efficacious than anything of the kind I ever saw, and I have sold thousands of bottles of other preparations for similar purposes.
Respectfully, P. BONDURANT.

SURRY COUNTY, VA., January, 1858.

GENTLEMEN: My old man, Billy, about 70 years of age while hewing sills with a broadaxe, split the call of the leg open down to the bone, about 3 or 4 inches long, cutting an artery. It bled profusely for two days, and continued to bleed until cold and stiff. I had to give him hot brandy. I could not sew it up, but just saturated a piece of linen with your Turf Oil and laid it on the cut. I did not expect him, on account of his age, ever to be able to work again. I continued to dress the wound two or three weeks with the Turf Oil. In six weeks the cut was entirely well, and he was at work again.
Very respectfully, W. CLAIBORNE JONES.

ON the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follies of both sexes of all ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirits, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginations, involuntary blushings, defective memory, indigestion, and lassitude, &c., comprising 250 pages, and illustrated with upwards of one hundred and thirty engravings. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled. With Confessions of a Boarding School Miss, a College Student, and a Young Married Lady, full of romance and thrilling interest.

Young men who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's NEW PARIS AND LONDON TREATMENT.

We have for the greater part of the past year, devoted our time in VISITING THE EUROPEAN HOSPITALS, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skilled Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and on the Continent—such men as CIVIALE, LENDRE, RICORD, BRECHETEAU, ACTON, and CURLINGS, of the French and English hospitals. Our tour extended through France, Italy, Germany, Holland, England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, visiting in our route the principal hospitals in Paris, London, Rome, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, &c., &c. We have been amply repaid by the additional knowledge we have acquired in the treatment of various diseases to which we have directed our attention. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many NEW AND EFFICIENT REMEDIES which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY, and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professional practice.

Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States or Canadas, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential.

HEADACHE—whether as a premonitory symptom of threatened disease, or as a concomitant of a disease intrenched within the system, is instantaneously relieved by
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,
and CURED IN SIX HOURS,
BY RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

There is scarcely a disease, ailment, or malady that seizes upon the human system but that one of its chief and primary symptoms is HEADACHE. The slightest derangement of the Stomach, Liver, Heart, Skin, Bowels, Kidneys, or Bladder—or a disturbance of the circulation of the Blood—or interference with the perspiration—results in pain, to a greater or less degree of severity, in the HEAD.

HEADACHE

Is not of itself a disease, but it is a certain sign that foreign and unhealthy humors exist within the system, and that disease is brewing within the body. Headache, therefore, should never be neglected: It is a warning of approaching woe, a signal to the sufferer to fortify his system to resist and repel the threatened disease. Headache is not only a positive sign of threatened disease, but it is likewise a concomitant of all the most violent, infectious, epidemic, and infectious diseases that afflict mankind. In the malarious, contagious, and infectious fevers—in YELLOW, TYPHUS, TYPHOID, SCARLET, SHIP FEVER—in LUNG FEVER, PNEUMONIA, MEASLES, SMALL POX—

IN FEVER AGUE.

Chagres Fever, Marsh Fever—in all Remittent and Intermittent Fevers—in Bilious, Nervous, and Rheumatic Fevers—in Influenza, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, in Diptheria, in Inflammations, Congestions, and Convulsions.

HEADACHE, HEADACHE, HEADACHE,

weighs down the brain with pain, and transforms the maddened brain to hideous insanity. In all these distressing forms of Headache,

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF,
and
RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS,

are quick and positive curatives.

In all cases of Symptomatic Headache, as disordered stomach, sudden cold, excessive indulgence, close application, &c., RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will restore the sufferer to peaceful tranquillity in a few minutes, and will, in six hours, purge from the system all offending humors, and restore a healthy equalization to the circulation.

Let those who are at present suffering with Headache make the experiment. In from five minutes to six hours you will be free from pain, and will enjoy a refreshing sleep. Don't wait, but try it at once.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.

THE MINUTE MEDICINE.

Instantaneous ease is given by Radway's Ready Relief in all cases of acute pain, internal or external. It stops in a moment the maddening agony of rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, burns, scalds, cuts, and bruises, when applied outwardly. Torture, that if continued would cause death, is arrested by a single dose of it, in five minutes. It suspends disease, giving time for the action of the other remedies. All complaints caused by unhealthy air, such as small-pox, scarlet fever, measles, fever and ague, yellow fever, cholera, dysentery, pneumonia, &c., are prevented by its occasional use. When the nervous system is paralyzed or convulsed, it produces a rapid reaction, immediately relieving spasms, convulsions, hysterics, &c. For the debilitated it is the best possible stomachic, infinitely better than alcohol in any form. Have it on hand always, for it may be required at any moment, and no drug will supply its place.

WM. SYDNEY MYERS, ESQ., HAVANA, CUBA.

HAVANA, CUBA, Jan. 2, 1858.

Messrs. RADWAY & CO., Gentlemen: I have been a sufferer from Acute Chronic Rheumatism for the last twenty years of my life; the sufferings during that period, neither tongue nor pen can express. I have spent a little fortune on Doctors' bills, without deriving any substantial benefit. Recently I had one of my frequent periodical attacks. I was very ill for a week, and had not slept an hour at any one time. A Spanish friend to whom I related my sufferings, told me he had a remedy which would give me relief, and he kindly presented me with a bottle of "RADWAY'S READY RELIEF." Although skeptical of deriving any advantage from its use, I that night applied it freely on going to bed, and, to my great amazement, felt relieved and slept soundly. The next night, I again applied the Ready Relief, and awoke in the morning free from pain, having only used about half the bottle.

Heartily do I return you my humble acknowledgments for your invaluable medicine, which may well be called a "blessing to man." * * * * Thanking you from my soul for your wonderful remedy, I have the honor to subscribe myself,
Yours, Respectfully,
W. SYDNEY MYERS.

ALSO—

CERTAIN OTHER GREAT CURES ARE DAILY EFFECTED WITH MARVELLOUS RAPIDITY.

By RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT.

Humors of all kinds, Sores, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Tetters, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Scrofula, Syphilis, Fever, Sores, White Swellings, Nodes, Erysipelas, Sore Heads, Sore Eyes, Sore Mouths, Cankers, Cancers, Severe Chronic Complaints, Gout, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Bronchitis, Ulcers in the Throat, Lungs, &c.

UNHEALTHY CITIES, SICKLY CLIMATES.

Dr. Wambarie, of Curacoa, writes to the special agent of Dr. Radway as follows: This is one of the most unhealthy places in the world—medicines of known value that will cure diseases of the same character in other places have no effect upon the sick here. Radway's Ready Relief, Regulating Pills and Renovating Resolvent prove happy exceptions. In every case where these miraculous medicines are administered, they cure the sick. I have cured the most terrible cases of yellow fever, fever and ague, typhoid fever, congestion of the liver, billious fever, &c., by the use of the Ready Relief and Radway's Pills.

With the Ready Relief and Regulating Pills, Dysentery is harmless, Cholera becomes a pastime, and the most violent Small Pox changes to a mild form of the Varioloid. The frightful Asthma is speedily reduced to easy, unchecked breathing. In bites of snakes, and stings of insects, a single application of the Ready Relief neutralizes the poison, and soothes the irritated flesh. I have cured several cases of palpitation of the heart, rush of blood to the head, and fits of various kinds, by a few doses of Radway's Regulating Pills.

RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT

Will regenerate dilapidated humanity, cleanse, enrich, and purify the blood, cure every kind of humors, and insure to all a clear skin and fair complexion.

FOR SORE EYES, ULCERS, AND HUMORS.

The Walking Skeleton, covered with Sores and Running Ulcers.

Before the introduction of Radway's Renovating Resolvent on the coast of South America, the streets of Callao, Valparaiso, Buenos Ayres, Rio, and other populous cities, were thronged with poor and decrepid, worn-out remnants of humanity, covered from head to foot with frightful sores and ulcers, discharging filthy and corrupt humors. The use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent has purified, cleansed, and healed the sick in every case. No more crippled and disabled beggars, no more foul and sore-eaten bodies are to be seen in the public streets; for in Radway's Renovating Resolvent, aided in the more severe cases by the Ready Relief and Regulating Pills, the most crippled person, covered with running sores and ulcers, is soon made sound, clean, and healthy.

Radway's Remedies are sold by Druggists, Merchants, and Storekeepers everywhere.

Price of Radway's Ready Relief 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle. Radway's Regulating Pills—25 cents per box (coated with gum), 30 pills in each box. Radway's Renovating Resolvent—$1 per bottle.

ABBOTSFORD.—When one remembers the herculean toils of Walter Scott to purchase and adorn Abbotsford, as the future home of his family it is melancholy to reflect that his family is nearly extinct, and the place fast going to decay. A correspondent writes:

To-day, sitting at the window of the little inn at Melrose, we rest an hour or two before leaving their charming shrines. Dryburgh Abbey, yesterday evening, in the setting sunlight, was all that romance and poetry have pictured it, and Sir Walter Scott's grave, as we stood leaning over his tomb, was cheered by a robin-redbreast singing loud and clear in a neighboring tree. Before visiting Dryburgh we spent several hours at Abbotsford, now seemingly a deserted residence, for Mr. Hope Scott and his little daughter are in London, and the place is left with servants. Fording the Tweed just after a smart shower, which made every bush brighten, and every blade of grass greener, we walked through the avenue leading to the house without meeting a soul. Arrived at the porter's lodge, no ringing of bells or pounding of doors could induce a human being to appear; so we opened the lawn gate and rambled about the grounds, not even a dog or cat coming out to see who were intruding upon the premises.

We thought our visit would be finished, and we should get away without meeting any one from the house; but a tidy little Scotch dame came at last, wiping the corner of her mouth with her apron, evidently having been disturbed at her lunch. Notwithstanding she had been obliged to leave her ale and sandwich, her temper was by no means ruffled, and in five minutes she became so minutely autobiographical, that we had all the items of her bustling existence spread out like a pocket-map before us. Sir Walter's study looked the same as I saw it ten years ago, but the library seemed less cared for. We went into the room where the minstrel died, and the same sounds from the river that fell on his dying ears came up through the open windows of the apartment. The present occupant, who married a daughter of Lockhart, is a Romen Catholic, and we were told by one of his neighbors that he was a "gude, kind mon." Coming away from the house we fell in with an old friend of Tom Purdie, who had many good words to say for that worthy person. He had also known Sir Walter, but he considered him too great a scholar for so humble a body as himself to be on very familiar terms with. Abbotsford is a sad place now, and one cannot go to it, remembering how cheerful it was once, without a sigh, that all have passed away who were so happy under its roof but a few years ago

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1861.

☞ We make room in our columns this morning for the late speech of Gov. Helm before the members of the Legislature at Frankfort. The speech, though in our opinion not without some very grave errors, if we comprehend it fully, is nevertheless one of signal force, and of equal frankness. Moreover, it contains much that is worthy of the best consideration.

☞ The following resolutions were on Friday last introduced into the lower House of the Legislature of Kentucky:

1. Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That to preserve the peace of the country, and give time for a friendly solution of our national difficulties, we respectfully advise and request the President of the United States, with as little delay as possible, to withdraw the Federal forces from seceding States, or from any State upon the request of the Government thereof, believing, as we do, that the continuance of the Federal forces in the midst of States is a perpetual cause of excitement and alarm, and calculated to prevent that calm exercise of judgment and patriotic discretion, so necessary to a peaceful adjustment of the alarming difficulties between the sections.

2. Resolved, That if the difficulties are settled, their presence is wholly unnecessary, as the original status can and will be restored.

Before we offer a word of comment on these extraordinary resolutions, we beg to adduce the President's own estimate of his duty in the case.

The President said in his last annual message:

In short, let us look the danger fairly in the face. Secession is neither more nor less than revolution. It may or it may not be a justifiable revolution, but still it is revolution.

What in the mean time, is the responsibility and true position of the President? He may put forth his solemn oath before God and the country "to take care that the laws be faithfully executed," and this obligation he cannot be absolved by any human power.

* * * * * * *

Then in regard to the property of the United States in South Carolina. This has been purchased for a fair equivalent, "by the consent of the Legislature of the State," "for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, and other" "the authority "to exercise exclusive legislation" has been expressly granted by the Constitution to Congress. It is not believed that any attempt will be made to expel the United States from this property by force; but if in this I should prove to be mistaken, the officer in command of the forts has received orders to act strictly on the defensive. In such a contingency, the responsibility of consequences would rightfully rest upon the heads of the assailants.

Apart from the execution of the laws, so far as this may be practicable, the Executive has no authority to decide what shall be the relations between the Federal Government and South Carolina. He has been invested with no such discretion. He posse ses no power to change the relations heretofore existing between them, much less to acknowledge the independence of that State. This would be to invest a mere Executive officer with the power of recognizing the dissolution of the Confederacy, a power subversive of its sovereign States. It bears no resemblance to the recognition of a foreign de facto government, involving no such responsibility. Any attempt to do this would, on his part, be a naked act of usurpation.

In his reply nearly a month later to the Commissioners of South Carolina, who urged upon him precisely what the resolutions above "advise and request", he said:

At this gloomy period of our history startling events succeed each other rapidly, and day by day, the 57th instant, that possession of these two forts was taken the Palmetto flag was raised over the Federal custom-house and post-office in Charleston and on the same day the officers of the customs—Collector, Naval Officer, Surveyor, and Appraiser—resigned their officers. And this, I trust and hope, will soon be the language of my message that as an executive officer I felt myself bound to collect the revenue at the port of Charleston under the existing laws. In the harbor of Charleston we now have a fort confronting each other, over all of which the Federal flag floated only four days ago; but now, over two of them, this flag has been struck, and the Palmetto flag has been substituted in its stead.

It is under those circumstances that I am urged immediately to withdraw troops from the harbor of Charleston, and am informed that without this negotiation is impossible. This I cannot do; this I will not do. Such an idea was never thought of by me in any communication I may have had with the Legislature of South Carolina

Hon. J. F. Bell left his home, in Danville, for Washington, on Friday morning.

ROBBERY.—A gold watch and a quantity of gentlemen's clothing was stolen by burglars from the residence of Lewis Oliver, on Sixth street between Chestnut and Broadway, about 4 o'clock Saturday morning.

THOMAS EWING, JR.—The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Hon. Thomas Ewing, Jr., formerly of Cincinnati, now of Leavenworth, Kansas, stands very high on the list of candidates for the U. S. Senate. Senators will be elected within a few days to represent Kansas, and the probability is Mr. Ewing will be one of them.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED.—We stated a few days ago that a shopkeeper named Wm. McAtier had been arrested at the complaint of Wm. Lowry on a charge of larceny. It was clearly shown on the examination that, so far from having committed larceny, Mr. McAtier had not actually had any of Lowry's goods in his possession, and he was accordingly honorably acquitted.

MADAME CLIFTON.—Madame Arabella Clifton, the whilom sorceress, was arrested in Memphis on Wednesday on a charge of having produced an abortion upon a white woman and underwent a preliminary examination. The principal witness against the accused is a woman who was formerly in her employ, and who testifies that she saw the operation performed while looking through a key-hole. The Madame was remanded to jail for trial in default of $1,000 bail. Madame Clifton was formerly a resident of this city.

REVIVALS IN LEXINGTON.—A great revival is now in progress at the Second Methodist Church, in Lexington, under the charge of Rev. G. W. Merritt. The meeting was commenced some three weeks since by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, and has been continued by Rev. Mr. Spruelle, of Paris, and others. Eighty persons have attached themselves to the church so far. In the Second Presbyterian Church, of Lexington, under the charge of Rev. R. G. Brank, a revival is also in progress, and we understand many additions to the church have been made during the meeting.

THE THEATRE.—Mr. J. Collins, the most successful Irish Comedian on the stage, and one of the very few who approach the Irish gentlemen, will make his appearance this evening at the theatre, in Bourcecault's renowned play of Colleen Bawn, or the Brides of Garryowen. Of course the theatre-goers will be on the qui vive.

MURDER AT CARLISLE, IND.—We learn from Vincennes (Ind.) Gazette that Mr. Joshua Alsop, a merchant of Carlisle, Ind., was murdered on Thursday night. It is supposed he was murdered for his money. Parties are in pursuit of the murderers.

WORKING-MEN'S MEETINGS.—The regular meetings of the Working-men's Clubs will be held as follows: Seventh and Eighth Ward Club at Bettison's Hall, corner Eleventh and Market streets, on Wednesday evening at half-past 7 o'clock; First and Second Ward Club at Schwind's Exchange, on Jefferson street, below Clay, on Thursday evening; Third and Fourth Ward Club, at Apollo Hall, corner First and Jefferson streets, on Friday evening. All working-men who desire to co-operate are invited to be present.

We stated a few days ago that a gentleman named Charles McQuinn, supposed to have been from Montgomery county, Kentucky, died in that place on the 15th inst. He was engaged there as a school-teacher, and had a diploma from the Louisville Commercial College, dated March, 1854. The Mount Sterling Whig says that the deceased was brought there on Friday last, and buried in the cemetery. He is originally from Morgan county, but was principally raised in Montgomery county, where he was universally loved and esteemed, and regarded as a young man of much promise.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—The entertainment to be given by the German Turners Association and musical societies, for the benefit of the poor, will take place at Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening next. Aside from the noble object of the entertainment the high character of the amateurs who offer it will render it attractive and pleasing.

THE HOLMAN TROUPE.—The celebrated Holman Parlor Opera Troupe will commence a series of entertainments, at Mozart Hall, this evening. An exchange, and its taste is unquestioned, says: "Not since the days of the Marsh Children have we attended so agreeable and pleasant an entertainment as that on Thursday evening, given by the above troupe. They are excellent singers, and display much histrionic talent. Miss Sallie and little Julia are perfect little pets, singing as sweetly as nightingales, and dancing like fairies, while they throw in just enough of child-like vivacity and naivette to keep an audience interested through the entire entertainment. Masters Alfred and Benjamin fill up their parts well. The drum solo of Master Alfred was a perfect gem, and, as we anticipated, was encored with a will." We know our people will appreciate these entertainments and patronise them, notwithstanding the tight times. Church members can attend without hearing or seeing anything offensive to their professions.

THE CASE OF THE CINCINNATI TIMES CARRIER.—Doctor J. Q. A. Foster was brought before the Mayor of Newport on Thursday, charged with committing an assault and battery upon the carrier of the Times newspaper of Cincinnati. The Doctor claimed a jury trial, which was had—the jury agreeing to disagree. The consequence was, that a new trial was granted the defendant, which was to come off yesterday.

BURNING OF THE HELENA SHIELD.—The office of the Helena Shield was entirely consumed by fire on the 24th ult. Loss about $3,500, and no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, but Mr. Q. K. Underwood, the proprietor, informs his patrons that the paper shall go on, even though he has to employ an officer day and night to watch his premises. Success to him.

THE OQUAWKA BANK ROBBERS.—John Barnes and B. F. Johnson have been held in $4,000 each to answer to a charge of robbing the banking house of Phelps & Co., of Ottawa, Ill., under circumstances familiar to our readers. Joseph K. Barnes has been discharged. Litten, who escaped and was recaptured, has turned State's evidence. He acknowledges that his charge against J. K. Barnes, like that against young Phelps, is false and malicious.

A DISHONEST SHERIFF.—John M. Girault, late Sheriff of Claiborne county, Miss., has been arrested on the charge of "wilfully defrauding Claiborne county of $9,446 50." Mr. Girault was lodged in jail, but was brought out for trial; but on account of some informality in the papers, as well as for the want of proper evidence, the complaint was dismissed, and the prisoner released from custody. But before Girault had time to get out of the room, he was rearrested by the District Attorney, who made affidavit that the prisoner had embezzled the funds of the State to the amount of $9,200, or thereabout; whereupon, Girault was remanded back to jail to await his trial.

CONVENTION OF WORKING-MEN.—At a meeting of the working-men at the Court-house on Saturday evening, Mr. Wm. Drysdale was called to the Chair and Mr. A. S. Kierolf was appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting being to appoint delegates to represent the working-men of the city in the National Convention to be held in Philadelphia on the 22d inst., Messrs. J. M. Laughlin, Will Horan, J. B. Curry, Robert Gilchrist, and A. G. Munn were appointed as a committee to select delegates. After retiring for a short time the committee returned and reported the names of Messrs. Wm. E. Glover and George Ainslie as delegates and Messrs. J. B. Curry and J. Milt. Moore as alternates, which report was unanimously adopted. In the absence of the committee Messrs. A. G. Munn and J. M. Alexander addressed the meeting.

PROSPECT OF PEACE.—The Hopkinsville Mercury says B. H. Bristow, Esq., of that place, received a letter from his father, the Hon. F. M. Bristow, Representative from the Third Congressional district, stating that the Republicans at Washington were actually engaged in preparing a liberal basis of adjustment, which would be made public in a few days. The threatening and overbearing course of the Secession Congressmen hitherto, they affirm, has been in the way of a settlement on honorable terms, up to this time.

AN ITALIAN MAJOR ANDERSON.—There is a Major Anderson in Italy. His name is Pergola, and with a small garrison he holds for Francis II the citadel of Messina. Pergola has warned the citizens that, resolved neither to surrender, nor yet to be starved out, the moment provisions fall short in the fortress he intends to blow it up. With paternal warning he adds: "That being more than eighty-two years old, life is of little consequence to him."

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 2.

Senate.—Mr. Anthony moved a reconsideration of the vote rejecting the resolution from the Committee on Finance to appoint Commissioners to visit sites for the Western Lunatic Asylum. Motion entered.

A bill to amend the charter of the Louisville Masonic Temple Company, having been amended by the House, under a dispensation of the rules the Senate took it up and concurred in the amendment.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of a bill for the benefit of the Sheriff of Washington county, together with the several amendments offered thereto.

Mr. Grundy offered as a substitute for the bill and amendments, "a bill for the benefit of the Sheriffs and tax-payers of this Commonwealth." [Gives further time, till June 1, to pay in taxes in full, but monthly payments of all collections to be made].

The substitute was amended and adopted in lieu of the bill. Several amendments were offered and considerable discussion ensued thereon, when the bill was ordered to be printed and have its third reading at 10½ o'clock on Monday.

Mr. Cissell—select committee—A bill to amend the charter of the Highland Coal Company. Ordered to be printed and made the special order for 11½ o'clock on Monday.

Mr. Haycraft—Circuit Courts—A bill to amend the act of March 2d, 1860, in relation to the duties of clerks of courts in this Commonwealth. Passed.

Mr. Fisk—Revised Statutes—A bill to amend Chapter 86, Revised Statutes. Passed.

A bill to amend the Civil Code of Practice. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A resolution was adopted to hold an evening session this evening.

The Senate then adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock.

House—Mr. Geiger reported a bill to incorporate the Bullitt County Manufacturing Company. Passed.

Mr. Machen, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill to amend the militia laws. Ordered to be printed and made the special order for Monday next, at 10½ o'clock.

Also transmitting a letter received from the Auditor, stating that the Clerk of the Marion county Court had not transmitted to his office the Commissioner's books for the year 1860, in obedience to the requirement of law.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting resolutions adopted by the State of Maine, in relation to an uniform decimal system of weights and measures.

Also, resolutions from the State of Minnesota, on the state of the Union.

Mr. McElroy moved to take up the motion to reconsider the vote rejecting the bill to amend the charter of the Highland Coal Company.

Before any vote was taken, the Speaker called the special order, which was the following resolutions offered on yesterday by Mr. Harrison:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That to preserve the peace of the country, and give time for a friendly solution of our national difficulties, we respectfully advise and request the President of the United States, with as little delay as possible, to withdraw the Federal forces from the Seceding States, or from any State upon the request of the Governor thereof, believing, as we do, that the continuance of the Federal troops in the said States is a perpetual cause of excitement and alarm, and calculated to prevent that calm exercise of judgment and patriotic discretion, so necessary to a peaceful adjustment of the alarming difficulties between the sections.

2. That if the object be to settle the difficulty between the sections without war, or in any event to prevent a collision between the Federal Government and the Seceding States, the continuance of Federal troops in the said States is unnecessary and impolitic.

3. That if the difficulties are settled, their presence is wholly unnecessary, as the original status can and will be restored.

Mr. Lannom moved the previous question. Rejected—yeas 28, nays 59.

Mr. Abell offered the following as a substitute for said resolutions:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That whatever may be the conflicting judgments of the Federal or State authorities, as to the legal power of force or coercion on the one side, or the right of resistance or self-defence on the other side, both the Federal and State authorities should carefully abstain from all action tending to further irritation or discord; that the existing status of possession, and all contested rights of property or jurisdiction shall not be invaded during the pendency of efforts for reconciliation, and if, unhappily, all hope of the restoration of the Union shall be blasted, we solemnly protest against any compulsory action by the Federal authorities, against the people or authorities of the States, which have or may dissolve their union in the Confederacy, and recommend a fair and just partition of the common property of the United States, as well as the cultivation of the most amicable relations with such States.

Resolved, That copies of the foregoing resolution be forwarded by the Governor of Kentucky to the President of the United States, and to the Governors of each of the States.

Before any vote was taken the Speaker announced the hour for the regular order, which was the resolution offered by the Committee on Federal Relations.

After the resolutions had been discussed at length by Mr. Underwood, the House took a recess until 3 o'clock, for the transaction of local and private business.

[Special Correspondence of the Louisville Journal.]

THE EXTRA SESSION.

ROOM NO. 40, CAPITAL HOTEL, FRANKFORT, Feb. 2.

The House this morning had under consideration the resolutions offered yesterday by Mr. Harrison, the paternity of which is generally attributed to George Saunders, the ubiquitous, gossipping, and intermeddling wire-worker, who sheds light every day or two upon the General Assembly of Kentucky and keeps the representatives straight in the path of duty. The resolutions look to the preservation of peace until there is final action on all the disturbing questions before the country. An act of hostility on the part of the general government or any of the Seceding States would bring great evils, but it does seem that the President and his Cabinet have no occasion to be schooled by Kentucky. She has already passed resolutions against coercion, but it is manifestly injudicious for our State, remote from the means of obtaining proper information and certainly not prepared to advise with the War Department, to prejudice the action of the Government and give aid and comfort to South Carolina. The passage of such resolutions will be a direct acknowledgment that the federal government is wrong and the Seceding States right.

The principal attraction to-day has been the elaborate speech of Judge Underwood, who has left his retirement to come to the Legislature and lend the weight of his experience to the efforts to compromise difficulties. The Judge, who was at the Raisin when a young man and a member of our Legislature forty years ago, looks hale and has every faculty unimpaired. When the special order came up this morning the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on Federal Relations, Mr. McElroy in the Chair, Mr. Underwood being entitled to the floor. He drew a terrible picture of the anarchy and desolation which would result from a disruption of the Union, and gave a graphic account of the harmony which governed the deliberations of the framers of the Constitution. He showed that our government was one of limited powers, the sovereignty being with the people. A sovereign government makes a servile people, and the happiest result from the war of the Revolution was the introduction of our written Constitution. The Federal Government was not a league or confederation, but an emanation from the sovereign people. We were one people practically before the Revolution, for Washington was appointed Generalissimo before independence was declared. The Declaration, in speaking of sovereign States, did not refer to written Constitutions, for they had none, but referred to the people comprising the States. After the confederation had failed to achieve its purposes the Convention assembled to form a firm National Government, taking certain enumerated powers from the States and giving them to the General Government, submitting all to the people, or conventions of the people, to pass upon them; and the people did so adopt the Constitution of the United States. He showed the numerous powers which were taken away and wisely surrendered to the Federal Government, and the many reservations which the people did not choose to give up. The present difficulties arise from the very cause which expelled Adam and Eve from Paradise—a disobedience to the law. If all would obey the injunctions of the law and Constitution all would be harmony and peace. We should all submit to the law. One man pays his taxes; another refuses to pay, but he has to submit to the power of the sheriff. We are all submissionists to the laws of God and man.

Different views of material interests North and South are the origin of our troubles and jarring opinions, and the element of slavery mingles with the whole. The North says the interests of free labor are incompatible with slavery—and hence comes the irrepressible conflict—when the politicians come along and say the two sections cannot harmonize, and, therefore, they had better separate. This is not true. What has slavery to do with the powers of government? Soldiers are not drafted as slaveholders or non-slaveholders. The war-making power has nothing to do with slavery. Washington, Jackson, Taylor, and Scott were all slaveholders. So with our jurists; so with the treaty-making power. The question of slavery has nothing to do with commercial treaties. Clay and Jefferson, celebrated as diplomatists, were slaveholders. What power is there in the Constitution that has an operation to prevent the slaveholder and non-slaveholder from having equal powers in all departments of the government?

Mr. Underwood gave a most interesting account of the history of the Clayton compromise resolutions, and of the compromises of 1850, all of which measures were drafted in the Senate Committee on the Territories by Stephen A. Douglas, its chairman, and were afterwards referred to the Committee of Thirteen, of which Mr. Clay was chairman, but justice to Mr. Douglas induced him to say that he was the originator of all the resolutions, after full and free consultations with his associates on the Committee. He then asked, if Congress did intervene, would it carry slavery into the Territories. Natural laws fix the line of slavery and why break up our government upon the idea that we cannot get our rights. He was opposed to the interference of Congress as he always had been, and the people have acquiesced in it for years. Does the refusal of the North to surrender slaves constitute cause for breaking up the Union, before any effort has been made to obtain other legislation? Clearly not. We should see what the North will concede before we quarrel with it.

Mr. Underwood in referring to the history of the present Fugitive Slave Law, stated that Senator Mason, of Virginia, its putative author, had taken all the machinery of that law from his (Mr. U.'s) original draft and appended the penalties of his own and then it passed. This made Mr. Mason's political fortune, but when Mr. Underwood came home he found himself denounced as an abolitionist, he could not probably have obtained two votes for a re-election and he retired to private life, until recently he was drafted by his fellow citizens to come here and do what he could towards the restoration of peace and harmony.

The close and compact argument which Judge U. made on the subject of government, cannot be digested within the limits of a letter, but he denied the power of any State to retire at pleasure from the Confederacy. If the machinery of government does not work right, there is a constitutional mode of amendment. There is no right of secession, but there is of revolution when it can be shown that the government is tyrannical and oppressive.

Party organizations and the interference of partisans have been another great cause of our present difficulties. They influenced the appointment of the Commissioners who were sent by us to Washington on a message of conciliation. Parties in this country were originated to promote the success of individuals at the expense of the masses and against the warning voice of the Father of his Country, and under the battle cry "to the victors belong the spoils," office now is the reward of partisan effort, and from 1832 things have been growing worse and worse and now have brought about the present crisis. South Carolina don't care about the negro question—for she has lost no slaves—but it is made a hobby which is ridden with whip and spur to get to Washington, from the North and from the South. This must all be done away with; Government patronage was not exercised for partisan reward before 1832 and no one denounced the practice more than Andrew Jackson; but when the country became rich the cunning devices to reward party services with lucrative offices increased most rapidly.

What good can grow out of secession, or will a State Convention be called to alter or amend the State Constitution? No one acknowledges this, and yet it is proposed to do a revolutionary act and degrade ourselves to the anarchy of the States of Mexico, subject to every momentary excitement and with no deliberate action. All our interests require a settled government and settled principles of government. What can a Convention do? It can't make a new constitutional principle, but it can pull down, break up, and destroy. It can do no good to build up, but it can effect much evil in pulling down, seceding, and resuming original sovereignty. Nothing would be gained by any change. Now you have law to restore your fugitive slave—law passed at the instigation of the Legislature of Kentucky, presented to Congress through the speaker. If the guards of the Constitution are abandoned, no surrender of fugitives can be expected. Judge U. showed that in 1859 Kentucky had 218,635 slaves, the value of which was $102,306,092. On the border, along the Ohio river, there were in twenty-four counties 42,920 slaves, worth over twenty millions of dollars, or one-fifth of the whole slave property of the State. Now when so much is talked of honor, let us take a look at the dollars and cents. What would become of this twenty millions of property when we have repudiated the Constitution and have no Fugitive Slave Law? By comparing the number of negroes in the border counties in 1859 with the number in 1849 he found that they had decreased 2,217. This was particularly perceptible in Boone, Bracken, Campbell, Greenup, Jefferson, Kenton, Lewis, Mason, Oldham, and the upper counties, although in Ballard and McCracken, comparatively new counties, the slave population has increased 100 per cent. This was because their opposite neighbors in Illinois were willing to protect the rights of the slaveholders. Take away the rendition and a state of things would ensue which would make matters worse than all the fancied wrongs now complained of.

The speaker argued that there was no principle of honor at stake, and no interest involved that demanded a Convention. Suppose the fifteen slave States were to secede peaceably and form another government, what assurance have we that it would be formed on principles under which Kentucky could live? Are we to recognize in the new confederacy the right of any one State, as soon as it is dissatisfied, to secede, march out, and set up for itself as South Carolina has done?

He next adverted to the federal property in the disaffected States, and to what should be done with it. He would say to the States, stay your hands, preserve the statu quo, and seize no more property; let the Government go on to collect its revenue and do its postal service. As long as this is permitted there need be no difficulty, but if the federal officers are interfered with there must be no indecision—if they are attacked they should repel the attack by force. He was not for surrendering a single attribute of the sovereignty of the Government, but he was willing to do much in the hope of pacification. Government possesses the right, and it is its duty, to inforce the Constitution and the laws. This cannot be done but one way, and the difficulty can be settled only by the Constitution of the United States. Are you willing that the Government should retreat and submit to those who are opposing it in the exercise of its authority? Certainly not. Neither do you want to tyrannize over your brethren and coerce them to submission. Every principle of the human mind was repugnant to such an idea. He believed that the supineness of Mr. Buchanan at the commencement of the difficulties had aggravated them. If the North and South cannot live peaceably together, let us preserve the forms of our Constitution and have a peaceful separation by general consent. It is not too late to do this now—anything else will lead to dreadful disasters. There is no safety but under the Constitution, and it should be inforced firmly but mercifully.

He proceeded to show that the non-surrender of fugitives, though a wrong, was not of a character to go to war about, and he referred to the case of Robert Stevens some four years ago. Judge U. said he was then a member of the Assembly and on the Judiciary Committee. Stevens in 1818 had assisted to kidnap a negro in Indiana and was subsequently elected to the Kentucky Legislature from Breckinridge county. The Governor of Indiana made demand for him; the acting Governor of our State thinking that a question of privilege was involved, referred the matter to the Legislature. Judge U. drew up the report with a resolution refusing his surrender, and it met the unanimous concurrence of the House. He was a young man then and since that he had brought himself to believe that the action was wrong. He referred to other acts of aggravation on the part of the South—to men, upon mere suspicion, having their heads shaved—to the discourteous conduct of South Carolina to the venerable Judge Hoar, when sent to that State as a Commissioner from Massachusetts, and said all these things ought to be corrected and would be in time, when the sections understand each other better. It would not do to call hard names or to reciprocate abuse North and South.

He showed that all the questions at issue have nothing to do with the administration of the Federal Government—there were no grounds of complaint against it, and no wrongs committed by the people of the States which could not be remedied under the Constitution. He elaborated this to some extent, and closed his speech of two and a half hours with a touching allusion to his advanced age—to his having obeyed the summons of his constituents to aid in restoring harmony, and the great probability that he should never make another speech in a legislative assembly.

I sincerely trust the venerable statesman will give this "farewell" of his to the world in pamphlet form. In cogency of reasoning, irresistible force of facts, extensive knowledge of the philosophy of our government and the harmonizing tendency there was nothing left incomplete. It was truly a great effort and is the crowning glory of a life so often devoted to the service of his country.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A few days since, on the plantation of E. W. Dale, Esq., in Tunica county, Miss., as William Shea was engaged in clearing a ditch of a large tree that had fallen into it, a limb of it fell and struck him, killing him instantly. Shea was for a number of years a resident of Memphis.

MUSTERED IN.—The Kentucky Rangers, a cavalry company, organized in the county, of which Capt. Benson Ormsby is the commander, was mustered into the State Guard on Saturday.

AN IMPOSTOR.—The Memphis Argus warns Odd Fellows and Masons against an impostor named Mrs. Bickell, who hails from Louisville, and states that her husband, C. M. Bickell, belongs to lodges here. She is tall and sparely built, and has children with her. She represents that her husband was killed by the explosion of the steamer Pennsylvania, and that he belongs to the Boone Lodge, No. 1, Louisville, Ky., I. O. O. F. Mr. Bickell is living, and has been separated from her for several years. She imposed on the order in Memphis in May, 1859. She is on her way to Helena.

A MAN FORGES HIS SISTER'S NAME, AND GETS HER MONEY.—At the instance of the officers of the Bank of Tennessee at Nashville, a man named Robert Whitley was arrested on Thursday for obtaining under false pretences, money deposited in that bank belonging to his sister. The Nashville Gazette says it appears that some time since his sister gave him $800 to deposit in her name. The lady called at the bank on Thursday, and learned to her astonishment that the money, with the exception of a small amount, had been drawn out by her brother. The officers of the bank immediately caused the arrest of Whitley, who was arraigned. In default of bail, he was committed to jail for trial.

AFFAIRS AT PENSACOLA.—Dispatches were received in Mobile on Friday, announcing the arrival of the U. S. ship Macedonian, with reinforcements from Boston for Fort Pickens, in the offing of Pensacola harbor. As the M. only sailed from Boston on the 14th, the news was at first doubted. But private dispatches were subsequently received confirming it.

Lieut. Berryman, of the U. S. steamer Wyandotte, at Pensacola, in a published letter, intimates his intention of resigning in case Virginia, whence he was appointed, secedes from the Union.

The Pensacola Gazette reports the latest condition of things as follows:

The troops have succeeded in mounting the following guns at Fort Barrancas: Three 8 inch Paixhan guns, two 8-inch Columbiads, eleven 32 pounders, eight 24 pounders, four 18 pounders, and ten 12 pounders. As the full complement of this fort is 49 guns, there still remain nine pieces to be placed in position.

At Fort McRea, though the work of mounting guns is steadily progressing, they have not been so successful—the following powerful battery still remaining unmounted: Two 10-inch Columbiads, so thoroughly spiked as to render it doubtful whether they will be fit for service again; twenty-two 42 pounders, forty six 32 pounders, twenty-seven 24 pounders—making a total of 98 guns yet to be got in position of its full complement of 151.

The Alabamians hold Barrancas—the Mississippians Fort McRea, and they can make them good against the combined forces of the Black Republicans, with their father, the Devil, to back them.

The Observer says the pilots have been notified that they can bring men-of-war into the harbor if they will come under a flag of truce.

THE NATIONAL FLAG.—We are informed that a movement has been made by several of our patriotic citizens to place our glorious National emblem upon the Court House. The jack staff will be about 70 feet above the roofing from which will be displayed the largest size American flag 40 by 20 feet. Orders for the erection of the staff have been issued, also for the manufacture of the flag, which will be entirely national in its character, containing 34 stars, emblematic of the 34 States now composing the "United States of America."

"A song for our banner!" The watchword recall
Which gave the Republic her station;
"United we stand—divided we fall!"—
It made and preserved us a nation!
"The union of lakes—the union of lands—
The Union of States none can sever—
The union of hearts—the union of hands—
And the Flag of the Union for ever and ever!
The Flag of the Union for ever!"

It is proposed that the inauguration of the event will be accompanied with appropriate ceremonies some time next week.

A CARD.
UNITED STATES HOTEL, Oct. 2, 1860.
To Mr. Hugh Wilkins:
The carpet lining put down for us by you is the only thing of the kind that we have ever seen that we could care to have put under our carpets. So much are we pleased with it, that we would be very unwilling to have another carpet (old or new) put down without it. The difference between a room where it is used and where it is not is so striking as to arrest the attention of the most unobservant. It is worth more than its cost in the increased softness and pleasantness it gives the carpet, and we think you do not overrate its economy in stating that it adds one-half to the carpet's wear.
If our recommendation of it will add anything to your sales, we cheerfully give it, feeling we do your customers a much greater kindness than we do you. HALL & HARRIS.
HARRINGTON'S CARPET LINING DEPOT is on the west side of Fourth street, between Main and Market streets. HUGH WILKINS.

AN AMERICAN ETHNOLOGICAL VIEW OF THE NEGRO QUESTION.
Shall White Men Rule America!
NEGROES AND NEGRO "SLAVERY,"
THE FIRST AN INFERIOR RACE—THE LATTER ITS NORMAL CONDITION.
BY J. H. VAN EVRIE, M. D.
1 Vol. 12mo., pp. 339. Price $1.
The author of this publication assumes, as a starting point, that the subordinate position of the negro, as always existing in American society, is not a condition of slavery at all, but the natural relation of an inferior to a superior race, and that whatever evils, if any, exist in southern society, are referable to a failure to fit the embody the natural inferiority of the negro in the civil law, and not to any error in the fundamental organism or theory of that society. His work is divided into two parts: first, the specific and radical differences of the races are examined. The color, figure, hair, features, language, senses, brain, &c., of the negro are shown to be only the more palpable specialties, out of a thousand similar ones separating the negro from the white man. Why, when, or how the Creator saw fit to thus order things the author regards as immaterial. He simply starts with the facts as they exist. After the negro is shown to be a different human being, physically and mentally, his proper relations to the white man are discussed, also mulattoism and its ultimate extinction, showing the impossibility of intermixture like cognate branches of the white race, a very important and but little understood branch of the subject. The theory advanced in this work is entirely new, and distinct from that presented by any other writer; and founded, as it is, upon inductive facts, it is believed presents at last the true philosophy of this distracting question.
"Such a work was demanded by all the friends of rational progress for the influence it must exert in elevating the Caucasian race to a proper conception of their mission."—[Hon. D. S. Dickinson.
"An able and manly exposure of a fallacy, which more than all other causes has disturbed the tranquillity of our people." [Hon. Jefferson Davis.
The work will be sent by mail, postage free, on receipt of one dollar.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The peculiarities of the female constitution and the various trials to which the sex is subjected demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature and at the same time accomplish the desired end. Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. There are numerous counterfeits offered for sale, all of which are destitute of merit and positively injurious to the system.

Something to restore; and it will do it. See Prof. Wood's advertisement.

Dr. J. C. Ayer of Lowell, Mass., the well-known chemist of New England, desires us to state as a caution to the public and his friends, that he does not travel the country to practice medicine for the treatment of disease. The sick are the last people in the world who should be deceived, and it is eminently proper they should be warned against mistaking any other claiming the same or a similar name for him.

READ THE EVIDENCE!
Read the following extract from a letter of a clergyman, well known in West Tennessee, North Alabama, and Mississippi:
Messrs. Clark, Gregory, & Co., Nashville, Tenn.: If I did not think you were troubled with more testimonials than you find time to read, I would send you word in relation to what your Ambrosial Oil has done for me. Suffice it to say, that I had been suffering with hoarseness, or obstructions in the Bronchial tubes, for many years, and it was getting so bad that I could scarcely fill my appointments. Your Ambrosial Oil perfectly restored me, and I now can work without difficulty.

Burnett's Cocoaine.
Burnett's Cocoaine.
The following testimonial is conclusive of its efficacy in the case of Baldness.
BOSTON, Nov. 24, 1859.
Gentlemen: When I first used your Cocoaine, I had been bald seven years. In the mean time I had tried a dozen different preparations, specially recommended for baldness, (and all claiming to be infallible), without any beneficial effect.
The ladies of the household urged me to try your Cocoaine, which I did, to please them, not having, myself any faith in the power of man to restore my hair. I have used the contents of one bottle, and my bald pate is covered all over with young hair, about three eights of an inch long, which appears strong and healthy, and determined to grow.
In a word, your Cocoaine is excellent—the best preparation for the hair I have ever known, and the only one which accomplishes more than it promises.
Very truly your obliged and obd't servant,
D. T. MERWIN.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

From the Evening Bulletin.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.

The Illinois Senate Committee on Federal Relations yesterday reported, that, with an earnest desire for a return of harmony among all our sister States, and out of respect to the Commonwealth of Virginia, the Governor be requested to appoint five Commissioners to attend the Convention in Washington on the 4th inst. The second resolution says that the appointment of Commissioners by the State of Illinois, in response to the invitation of the State of Virginia, is not an expression of opinion on the part of the State that any amendment to the Federal Constitution is required to secure to the people of the slaveholding States adequate guarantees for the security of their rights, nor an approval of a basis of settlement of our difficulties proposed by the State of Virginia, but as an expression of our willingness to unite with the State of Virginia in an earnest effort to adjust the present unhappy controversies, in the spirit in which the Constitution was originally formed and consistent with its principles. The third resolution says that the appropriate and constitutional method of considering and acting upon grievances complained of by our sister States, would be the call of a convention for the amendment of the Constitution in the manner contemplated by the fifth article of that instrument.

The resolutions were adopted by a vote of 13 to 10—a party vote.

Gustavus Koerner has declined the appointment of commissioner and Judge Palmer has been appointed in his stead.

The Springfield correspondent of the Tribune says that Mr. Lincoln returned to Springfield yesterday. He had a reception on Thursday evening at the courthouse in Charleston. On being pressed to make a speech he declined in any way to indicate his future policy, but expressed great gratification at the hearty unanimity with which all parties had come forward to welcome him. On his return he met a committee of citizens from Cincinnati, who came to tender him the hospitalities of that city on his way to Washington. They returned yesterday bearing a letter accepting the invitation in accordance with the resolutions of the Legislature passed yesterday.

Gov. Yates appointed the following Commissioners to Washington: Stephen T. Logan, Gustavus A. Kaimer, Ex-Gov. Wood, B. C. Cook, and Thos. J. Turner.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.

It is stated here that orders have gone to the African squadron for immediate home duty of steamboats Mohegan, Sumter, and Mystic, with their officers and crews.

Parties at the South are now negotiating for the tow-boats Resolute and Reliance owned by Capt. Degroot. They are the fastest screw boats afloat having run 18 miles an hour, and are of very light draught of water, besides, they are built in such a substantial manner as to be capable of carrying a very heavy gun on the forward deck.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 2.

The Governor yesterday appointed Hon. C. B. Smith, P. A. Hackleman, G. S. Orth, E. W. H. Ellis, and T. C. Stoughton Commissioners to Washington.

TORONTO, C. W., Feb. 2.

The English writ of habeas corpus in the case of the fugitive slave Anderson arrived in town yesterday. Our Chief Justice of the Common Pleas here has also issued a writ of habeas corpus as the prisoner is in Brantford jail. The result remains to be seen. Both bench and bar are unanimous in opinion that the Chief Justice of England acts unwarrantably in sending out a writ to be executed within the jurisdiction of the Chief Justice of Canada.

DETROIT, Feb. 2.

In the Senate yesterday a resolution authorizing the Government to appoint five Commissioners to Washington was rejected—yeas 15, nays 16.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 1.

A town meeting called of those in favor of restoring a union of the States was held to-night and was generally attended. Messrs. Morris, Wallace, and R. McLeod addressed the meeting. Resolutions passed denouncing the course of Gov. Hicks in refusing to call a Convention, denying his authority to send delegates to the City Convention to elect delegates to the State Convention to give expression to the views of Maryland on the present crisis.

XXXVIth CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

Friday's Proceedings Concluded.

House—Mr. Quarles, of Tenn., said no man sympathized with disunion less than he. He said there was no warrant for it in the Constitution. He believed, however, in the sacred right of revolution when the government becomes oppressive. He advocated the restoration of the Missouri Compromise line, which will restore peace.

Mr. Wilson, of Ind., argued that no injustice and wrong had been done to the South, and Secession resulted from unfounded complaints and causeless fears. Until slavery disappeared it will be always the source of all our woes.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

Saturday's Proceedings.

Senate—Messrs. Bigler, Fitch, and Cameron presented a number of memorials in favor of the Crittenden resolutions.

Mr. Chandler presented a petition from the citizens of Michigan, asking the Senate, first, to ascertain whether we have a Government de facto or not; second, that if so, that measures be taken for the apprehension of all persons presenting themselves at the seat of Government, under pretense of being Commissioners from independent Governments, on a charge of treason; third, that measures be taken to protect the archives of Government; fourth, that forts still in the possession of the Government, at the South, be promptly applied with men; fifth, that a sufficient number of vessels be placed in Southern ports to protect commerce and collect revenue.

Mr. Trumbull called up the resolution offered yesterday for the appointment of a Joint Committee to provide a mode for counting the votes for President and Vice President and notifying persons elected, which was passed.

Several amendments from the Committee on Indian Affairs, were adopted, and the bill was postponed till Monday.

Friday next was set apart for the consideration of bills.

The Post Route bill from the House, with the Overland Mail amendment, was taken up. Mr. Hale was in favor of the Overland Mail, but thought if this route was adopted, the Butterfield route ought to be suspended. The bill was ordered to be printed and postponed.

The bill to organize a Government for Idaho was taken up.

Adjourned.

House—John Cochrane, Morris, of Pennsylvania, and Noel, of Missouri, presented memorials expressive of a strong desire for the adjustment of the difficulties. Those presented by the last named gentleman included the signatures of thirty-five ladies who do not thus approach Congress in a spirit of dictation, but as the descendants of the honored women of the revolution.

Mr. Sherman called up the bill authorizing the President, at any time before the 1st of July, to borrow, on the credit of the United States, not exceeding $25,000,000, certificates to be issued for not less than $1,000 coupons, payable semi-annually with interest, and the faith of the United States pledged for the payment of the interest and principal.

Mr. Phelps offered a substitute that the third section of the act of June, 1860, providing for the redemption of the treasury notes, be modified so as to empower the Secretary of the Treasury to negotiate the balance of the loan, not taken under that act, on the most favorable terms, instead of restricting the negotiation of the loan at not less than par, and after notice of ten instead of thirty days. Mr. Phelps said the Morrill tariff bill proposed a loan of $21,000,000, and the bill reported from the Committee on Ways and Means $25,000,000, thus making $46,000,000, when there is an exhausted loan of $11,000,000 under the act of June, of which he desired the Government to avail itself without unnecessary delay.

Mr. Sherman approved the amendment. The loan proposed was $25,000,000. He supposed it would settle up the accounts of this Administration. As there was no money and little revenue, they would be obliged to resort to the credit of the Government.

Mr. Hindman offered the proviso that no part of the loan should be used to maintain forces to make war on States which may secede.

Mr. Sherman refused any such amendment.

Mr. Garnett considering that the Morrill tariff bill provides for a loan of twenty-five million dollars, he thought the bill designed for war purposes.

John Cochrane said that if Mr. Sherman depended on the Morrill tariff bill for sufficient revenue he would find himself mistaken. The proposed alteration would paralize commerce.

Mr. Sickles said it was not surprising that a protective tariff bill should embrace authority to borrow twenty-one million, as it would be necessary to make up for the revenue lost by the diminished imports. This is the Republican tariff promised in the Chicago platform.

Mr. Milson moved to strike from Mr. Phelps' substitute the words, "the proceeds of said loan may be applied to discharge the current expenses of the Government." Agreed to—126 to 42.

Mr. Phelps' substitute was then rejected, 52 against 19, and the bill, as originally reported, passed—124 against 46—the opposition coming from the Democratic side.

The Senate's resolution in relation to the nonpayment of construction mileage to the widow of Senator Linn, was then debated at length and referred to Committee on Accounts.

The Indian Appropriation bill was then taken up.

Mr. Washburn, of Ill., moved to proceed with the consideration of the Senate's resolution providing for a joint committee to count votes for President and Vice President, and notify the persons chosen of their election. Carried.

Messrs. Washburn, Adrian, Ely, Anderson, and Craig were appointed as such committee.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the Deficiency Bill.

The Chiriqui amendment was discussed by Messrs. Stanton, Scott, and Porter, when the Committee rose.

Mr. Corwin gave notice that he would move to close the debate on the report of the Committee of Thirty-Three on Thursday.

Mr. Sickles suggested that a vote should not be taken till after the assembling of the Union Convention.

Mr. Corwin would be governed by circumstances in that particular.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.

The correspondent of the Post says Senator Sumner had an interview with the President today in relation to an offer of military aid by the Legislature of Massachusetts for defence of Federal property and the enforcement of the laws. Mr. Sumner asked, "what more can Massachusetts do for the Union?" The President replied, "adopt the resolution offered by Mr. Crittenden." Mr. Sumner replied, "the public sentiment of Massachusetts makes that impossible, and I agree with that."

The correspondent to the Times says Col. Hayne's communication to the President was completed and delivered at a late hour last evening. In it the demand is made for the surrender of Fort Sumter: first, on the ground of rights of eminent domain in the sovereign; and second on the ground of the right of the sovereign to condemn to the public use any property necessary for its own protection and independence by paying therefor a fair compensation.

The document assumes the complete independence of South Carolina, with this assumption with it, the first proposition under the second head. He argues that the position of the Administration is absurd. If the forts be regarded as property only and the purpose be to protect it, he considers the various ways of protecting property, and shows that a collision will not afford protection, whether the fort be taken or not.

The property will be injured. This injury, he says, can be avoided, and every dollar secured, as South Carolina pledges herself to pay its full value. The communication proceeds to consider the result of the refusal to settle the question as one of property, one of dollars and cents, as the Government based its whole action on the idea of protecting property. Colonel Hayne contends that the question should be considered as one involving property alone. As such it could be easily arranged. He says further that any attempt to reinforce will be considered a declaration of war. The Cabinet was in session to-day on the communication. The anticipation is that the President will only reply to Col. Hayne that he will send a communication to Congress, and that he will reply to the demand in a special message.

This course deprives Col. Hayne of a rejoinder. He leaves on Monday. He thinks there will be no attack on Fort Sumter until after the organization of a Southern Republic, unless an attempt be made to reinforce it.

Capt. Ingraham, of Koszta celebrity, tendered his written resignation yesterday to Secretary Toucey, who declined receiving it, and begged him to reconsider. He agreed to withhold it till to-day, when he will insist on its acceptance.

A salute was fired at the national armory to-day for the admission of Kansas into the Union.

Col. Lander, whose superintendence of the Overland Wagon Road was so satisfactory to the government, has resigned that office.

W. B. Waddell, of this city, of the firm of Russell, Majors, & Waddell, has just completed an assignment of all his individual property, after paying a small amount he owed and the entire indebtedness of Russell, Majors, & Waddell, in this city and county. No one will suffer by this failure, and his indorsers will be fully secured and all their debts will be fully satisfied, provided their property is sold at a reasonable price. The trustees of Mr. Waddell are G. Burden and John W. Waddell, of this city.

SHELBYVILLE, IND., Feb. 2.

The Republican county convention met here this evening. The border State proposition was adopted with great unanimity. The Republicans invited the Democrats, who had appointed a meeting at the same time and place, to unite with them, but the Democrats declined and withdrew to another place and adopted the Crittenden Compromise.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

CHARLESTON, MASS., Feb. 2.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in this city last evening, Hon. A. R. Thompson presiding.

Messrs. Everett, Saltonstall, Dane, and Frothingham addressed the meeting.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That this meeting concurs most heartily in the sentiments of the distinguished leader and premier of the incoming administration, Wm. H. Seward, viz: That the question of slavery is not now to be taken into account; that we are to save the Union; and then that we are to save all that is worth saving.

Resolved, That we earnestly hope that the proposition of the Hon. John J. Crittenden will be adopted as a basis of settlement of the impending perils of the United States, it being the only practicable plan that all sections can fairly and honorably adopt, and which is all that human wisdom has been able to offer to our distracted country.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the Hon. John J. Crittenden, with the request that he will present them to the Senate of the United States as the voice of the Union men of Bunker Hill.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 3.

A Convention of the Representatives of the Constitutional Union and Democratic parties assembled yesterday at the Mercantile Library Hall for the purpose of nominating a ticket for a State Convention, and to agree upon such a platform as would meet most likely with the support of the national conservative voters of the country. The consultations between the two parties were friendly and harmonious, and all party distinctions were set aside. The platform was adopted unanimously and reiterates the resolutions passed at the great Union meeting January 12th, expressing devotion to the Union and strongly opposing the secession of Missouri, and insisting that the action of the Convention be submitted to the people.

The following gentlemen were nominated on the Constitutional ticket: John D. Coalter, I. A. January, Henry L. Turner, George Penn, Luther V. Bogy, John W. Wills, P. B. Garesche, Le Beaume, M. RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The Ohio commenced rising at this point on Saturday, and had risen 6 inches up to 6 o'clock last evening, at which time there was 7 feet water in the canal, 5 feet in the pass at the falls, and 4 feet on the rocks.

At Cincinnati the river is rising slowly.

The Chattanooga Advertiser says the Tennessee river is higher at this time than it has been since 1847. The freshet has occasioned heavy losses. Many farmers residing near the river have been forced to leave their residences. It has not been an unusual sight to see houses, barns, and in some cases even residences borne away by the almost irresistible current. The large brick block known as the Stevenson block of that city is almost a total wreck, having fallen in. Hay, corn, fences, houses, &c., have been swept away. A great many cattle and hogs, we understand, have been drowned.

Capt. Wm. Huddleston and Mr. Preston Bland of Kentucky have purchased the sidewheel steamer Des Moines for $12,000, and will place her in the Louisville and St. Louis trade as soon as the stage of the Ohio and Mississippi will admit.

The new Leslie Combs, Capt. Geo. Stivers, is the regular packet for the Kentucky river at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Chas. Stivers is the clerk.

The Magenta, Capt. Spotts' peerless floating palace, is due from New Orleans to-day, and will have immediate despatch on a return trip.

We are indebted to Mr. George Essex, the attentive clerk at Capt. T. M. Erwin's, for favors.

Mr. Chas. Bower has become associated with Mr. Jas. E. Sage in the steamboat agency business at No. 143 Wall street. Charlie has a long experience in the business, and is well and favorably known to steamboatmen.

The Sunny Side arrived from Madison.

Tuesday night last, before the steamer Red Rover arrived at the Memphis wharf, the stateroom of a passenger named Lolland Kelling was entered by a burglar, who approaching the berth, and, after administering chloroform to the slumbering occupant, robbed him of over one thousand dollars in bank bills, which were upon his person. The loss was not discovered until the boat had landed, when the robber undoubtedly went ashore.

Mr. S. Davidson late clerk of the Lebanon, died at Newport, Ky., on Friday.

A correspondent of the New Orleans True Delta announces the sinking of the Reub. White in Harvey's Canal, Red River. The boat, on her way up through the canal, broke all her hog chains, and, her seams opening, she sunk, and, according to report, will prove a total loss.

It was reported yesterday that the E. H. Fairchild had broken a piston at some point below, and that the Glendale was towing her up to this port.

The elegant steamer Jacob Strader, Capt. Dittman, is the mail packet for Henderson at noon to-day.

The Fanny Bullitt, Captain H. W. Smith, arrived from New Orleans yesterday morning. She will leave again for that port at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. Augustus Lencke is the clerk.

The neat steamer Bracelet, Captain Duncan, is the regular mail packet for Henderson at the usual hour this afternoon.

The Leonora, Captain Davis, is advertised for Pittsburg to-day.

The Time, Captain Johnson, is advertised for the Tennessee river this afternoon.

The John Gault came in from Nashville yesterday and will have immediate despatch for the Cumberland river.

The fleet and splendid Atlantic, Captain McGill, will leave for New Orleans at 5 o'clock this afternoon positively. She has no superior either as a passenger or freight packet, having unsurpassed accommodations. Mr. John S. Woolfolk is the clerk.

SAFETY OF THE LEVANT.—The Trenton (N. J.) Gazette publishes the annexed extract from a letter just received by Mrs. Hunt, wife of Capt. Hunt, commander of the Levant, from a friend in Washington City.

Lieut. W. A. Johnson has just brought Mrs. Terret (the third Lieutenant's wife) the following information, which she desires me to send you. The Levant has been spoken by a whaler from the Sandwich Islands. Capt. Hunt desired him to report that he was compelled to visit some of the other islands in the Pacific—consequently he would not be at Panama for two months from the time he was expected. The doctor of the St. Mary's traveled from Panama with the Captain of the said whaler, and came on to Washington to give the information to the family of Purser Watson.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND THE COLLECTOR.—Messrs. J. W. Zacharie, R. W. Ogden, Wm. Creevy, Wm. B. Tullis, and L. C. Jurey, having been appointed by the President of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce to wait on the Collector of this port, and confer with him on the subject of the clearances of vessels, those gentlemen addressed to Mr. Hatch, on the 22d inst., a collective letter, from which we will extract the following passage:

The Chamber of Commerce, in representing the commercial interests of New Orleans, desire that, under all circumstances, let arise what may, there may be no obstructions nor interference with lawful trade.

When we consider the position of Louisiana, and the port of New Orleans, in which are centered interests of every section of the United States, as well as those which have separated themselves from the Union, and also the interests of every foreign nation, with which the United States have commercial relations, it appears to the committee, who now have the honor of conferring with you, that you must agree with them, that it is of the greatest importance that the rights of commerce, both foreign and domestic, should not be interfered with, but be allowed to pursue its peaceful course.

Therefore the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce ask your friendly action, in order to grant all such facilities as may be in your power, to aid in every manner possible the ingress and egress of vessels with their cargoes coming to or departing from this port.

On account of Mr. Hatch's absence from the city his answer to that important letter was sent only yesterday to J. W. Zacharie, Esq., the chairman of the committee. The Collector assured those gentlemen "that as a citizen of the State of Louisiana, and Collector of the port of New Orleans, there shall be nothing lacking on his part to promote by all the facilities at his command the interests of the commerce of the great commercial emporium of the South."

A RUMOR ABOUT ISAAC V. FOWLER.—The following item appears in the New York correspondence of the Charleston Courier:

Our late postmaster, Isaac V. Fowler, is still in the city of Mexico. He is in very straitened circumstances. When he left here his friends made up for him a very handsome purse of several thousand dollars. But it vanished very rapidly while he was sick of the fever in Havana. What he saved of it there he was robbed of on his trip from Vera Cruz to Mexico. Three times on the way between the two cities was he overhauled by the bandits which infest that unhappy country, and he was despoiled of everything save what he had on his back. Fowler was even robbed of a lot of locks which were being conveyed with him. His friends here will no doubt do something more for him, as he is really in a needy condition.

BOATS WITH MUFFLED OARS IN THE CHARLESTON HARBOR.—The Charleston Mercury, of Jan. 26, says:

There seems to be a great curiosity among some folks to look at our harbor defences on the sea shore. Perhaps the boatmen have some spare gun spikes which they would like to use. Circumstances, however, alter cases, and what was done without interruption at Fort Moultrie becomes a dangerous experiment in another locality. It may be that, in this instance, the pursuit of knowledge has been attended with danger as well as difficulty.

A GLANCE AT EUROPE.—The T[illegible] correspondent of the New York Tribune, under date of the 12th January, says:

The French fleet has at last left Gaeta, and about the time of the elections for the Italian Parliament we may hear of the flight of Francis II. and the surrender of his famous fortress. It was high time that such an event should come, if only to place the Cabinet of Turin in a better position, since the support granted by the French Emperor to the ex-King of Naples was a serious injury to the popularity of Count Cavour and of the French alliance, while it gave strength to Garibaldi and to his independent policy, centering all hopes exclusively upon Italy and her resources. As to my personal views I side rather with the hero of Caprera than with the Diplomatists of the Piazza di Castello. Still, as all the conservative and moderate portion of Italian society supports Cavour and implicitly trusts his policy, a conflict with Garibaldi would lead to a revolution; and Italy is not yet strong enough to face at the same time a foreign war and civil commotions. Cavour himself feels keenly this critical position, and tries therefore to come to terms with Garibaldi. But it is a difficult task, since the hero, without caring much for diplomacy, insists upon beginning the war in the spring. The Government has slighted him at Naples, removed all his friends from places of trust, encouraged the disbanding of his army, and endeavored rather to conciliate the Bourbonists than to lean upon the Garibaldians. Now that Farini in Naples and La Farina in Sicily have completely failed, the organs of the Government preach peace and concord with Garibaldi, but upon condition that he shall subordinate himself to Count Cavour and give up all his adventurous plans. Napoleon is fully satisfied that the coming war cannot be localized, and must soon extend beyond the boundaries of Italy; but even he does not feel strong enough for a great European conflict, and therefore gave his instructions to Count Cavour not to allow an attack upon Venetia or any Austrian province. The most serious difficulty would at once be removed could the scheme of the sale of Venetia be carried; but Francis Joseph is stubborn, and refuses to listen to the advice of public opinion in France, England, and Russia. Lord Palmerston built his scheme of European conciliation upon the supposition that Count Rechberg, the reactionary Minister of Foreign Affairs, could not maintain his position while the system which he represented was abandoned as regards Hungary and even the non-Hungarian Provinces. Count Mensdorf, the nephew to King Leopold of Belgium, and cousin to the Queen of England, was to supersede Count Rechberg, and it was known that he favored the idea of a cession; but Rechberg's position proved to be too strong for any intrigues to the contrary. He kept his post, and England now sees that it would be in vain to propose a solution so strongly repugnant to the tastes of Francis Joseph that he takes it for a personal insult.

How long this state of things may last it is difficult to predict. The silent, underground war between Schmerling and the Hungarian Ministry on one side, and Rechberg and the backstairs influences on the other, cannot cease before one or the other party is completely defeated, and withdraws from the contest. The Hungarians will take advantage of the situation, and put themselves in possession of all their rights, as they were determined by the laws of 1848. Nobody pays taxes, and all the country waits anxiously for the meeting of Parliament, which probably is to take place on April 22 at Pesth. Should, in the meantime, a war break out between Austria and Italy, the Parliament will probably become revolutionary; should, on the other hand, Venetia be sold, or Italy keep her peace, then we do not think a conciliation between Austria and Hungary to be impossible. If Francis Joseph grants an independent Ministry to Hungary, he will be crowned with the crown of St. Stephen, and at last become the legal sovereign of Hungary.

The coming months are most critical for the state of Europe. Napoleon arms, and recommends a Congress for settling the pending questions; England is uneasy; the new King of Prussia, William I., declares, in his first manifesto to his nation, that the confidence of Europe is shaken; Bavaria prepares for war, and Austria is still in the convulsions of a financial and political crisis. Russia, though deeply engaged in the immediate emancipation of the serfs, concentrates an army on the Pruth, and threatens Moldo Wallachia with an invasion in case the Hungarians should try to organize an inroad from the Principalities into Transylvania. Prince Couza suddenly turns round, and, after having for a time favored the schemes of Hungary, proclaims now the strictest neutrality, and expels the Hungarian refugees. The Prince of Servia is likewise frightened, and no longer dares to put himself in opposition to Austria and Russia. But Bosnia, Bulgaria, and Montenegro are still agitated, and it is scarcely possible that the year 1861 will pass away without serious commotions in European Turkey. Beside these greater questions, there remains still the squabble about Schleswig-Holstein and the Constitution of Hessia, which may be made a pretext, both by Napoleon and Czar Alexander, for disturbing the state of Germany. I need not say that the American difficulties greatly influence the money market, and there is an uneasy feeling prevalent that Europe is on the brink of a great war or of a revolution.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET.
OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL, MONDAY, February 4, 1861.

The money market continues depressed, with no change to note in any particular. We continue to quote Eastern exchange at ⅛ per cent prem., and New Orleans at ¼@⅜c prem. The general market was very dull on Saturday, with no sales of provisions reported, holders insisting upon former rates, and buyers anxiously awaiting a decline. Flour has a downward tendency.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—Sales 480 bbls flour at $4 50@5 50. Wheat has improved, with sales of 2,500 bushels at 95@$1 10. Sales 1,600 bushels corn, mixed and white, at 51@53c delivered at the railroad depot, and 600 bushels ear at 45c. Sales 600 bushels oats at 45c, sacks returned.

HAY.—Very dull and declined, with offerings from the landing at $15 per ton. Sales 17 tons from store at $16@17.

WHISKY.—Firm, with sales 193 bbls at 14⅛c.

APPLES AND POTATOES.—Light sales of each at former rates.

CHEESE.—Unchanged; sales 40 bxs W. R. at 8½@9c.

BEANS.—Sales 200 bushels prime white navy beans at $1 25 ⅌ bushel.

GROCERIES.—Rather better. Sales 43 hhds sugar at 6⅛@7½, 80 bbls molasses at 28@29c, 60 half bbls at 31c, and 97 bags coffee at 13½@13¾c.

TOBACCO.—Sales 22 hhds, as follows: 2 at $1 50@1 60, 3 at $2 40@2 75, 5 at $3 25@3 85, 4 at $4@4 70, 2 at $6 35@6 55, 3 at $7 25@7 65, and 1 at $9 50.

FREIGHTS.—Shipments to Pittsburg and Wheeling at 18@20c for pound freights. Pound freights to New Orleans—Bagging and rope, bacon in casks, cement and lime, lard, oats, and tobacco 30c, corn and wheat 22½c dry-goods 40c, cattle $8, calves $2, horses $8, mules $7, sheep 80c, hay $8 per ton. Way freights—Bagging and rope, bacon in casks, cement and lime, lard, oats, and tobacco 5c, corn and wheat 27½c, hay $10 per ton, dry goods 50c, cattle and horses $8, mules $7, calves $4, sheep 80c.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of Saturday:

The provision market had but little spirit to-day, and sales could not have been made to any great extent without offering to buyers some concessions. In other words, there was no use to offer stuff, as orders are withheld partly because of the glut of freight in the railroads south of Nashville, and partly because they are less peremptory to buy on the current market, and a little more discretionary. In addition to this, there is no speculative feeling in the trade; those who desire to buy have opportunities of helping to unload such packers in the interior as are putting their stuff on the market. Consequently there is no competition among the packers. Mess pork is quoted at $17 for city packed, $16 75 for country. Lard is held at 9⅞c for prime city in tcs, though sales were made at 9¾c for about 200 packages. Bulk meat can be had packed at the prices recently quoted for it loose: 6¼@6⅜c provided purchasers take both shoulders and sides: otherwise the sides are preferred an eighth of a cent per lb. 9⅜c was offered for clear bulk sides but declined. Bacon can be had at 7¼; 9¼@9½c for shoulders, sides and clear do. But few transactions have been made in anything, and as the New Orleans market—the principal support of prices here recently—is again reported to be weakening it is probable that there may be something of a rest in the trade. This should not be unexpected, since there have been unusually few interruptions in the steady consumptive demand that has been enjoyed. The receipts of hogs were not above the ordinary wants of the butchers during the last twenty-four hours.

The St. Louis Democrat of Saturday says:

There are orders here all the time for provisions, but they will not be filled until the facilities for shipment are better. There only remain some 3,000 to 4,000 bar rels of city mess pork here, most of which is in the hands of one house. Nor can country pork reach here in any quantity until a rise in the rivers. One packer has all his lard yet, except 100 casks, but most of the other rendering has been disposed of and shipped. City mess is firm at $18. Lard 10@10½c in tcs. Bacon shoulders, packed 7¼@8c. Rib sides 9¼@10c. Clear do 11c. Plain 10¼c.

The scare practised yesterday morning, at the opening of trade, which induced butchers to believe that the largest supply ever known in the yards would be on hand before Wednesday afternoon, and which so disconcerted drovers that they were willing to reduce prices several dollars ⅌ head, failed this morning to produce any further depression in prices, because parties found out that the number reported on the way was an over estimate, and also that a number known to be at Buffalo, Albany, and other places, could not be got here in time for this week.

Had drovers known the real state of things yesterday, they would have been several dollars per head better off. The receipts at Allerton's, all thought, would be 4,000 and 4,500 head, yet only 3,200 head were received. The prices Tuesday were fully ½@1 cent below last week, the latter reduction on the common grades.

We quote selections from prime droves at 9c, a few extra quality 9½@9¾c; premium 10@10½c; common to good 5@8½c. A large number of very nice, good, fat steers sold for 8@8½c, and an equal quantity of very passable quality at 7@7¾c.

Even the common stock (ranging from 5 to 6½ cents average better than usual, and sold as low as any such have done before in a long time. We quote the average decline for the week at ¾@1 cent per pound.

The detentions upon the railroads have been more frequent than usual, partly owing to the recent snow storms, several hundred head on the route by the Erie road are delayed somewhere this side of Campville. At Albany quite a number remain.

The demand at the close was more active and all the offering would be sold.

The business in sheep and lambs has been active and prices are four shillings per head lower; sales of live at 4@5¼c, carcasses 5½@8c. The average price for 4,019 head was $5 06.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2, P. M.

Cotton unchanged and demand moderate; middling uplands quoted at 12c, with sales of 2,300 bales, including 300 bales in transit. Flour lower, only limited business done for export and home consumption; sales 7,800 bbls at $5 15@5 20 for superfine State; $5 30@5 40 for extra do; $5 15@5 25 for superfine Western; $5 30@5 60 for common to medium extra Western; $5 65@5 75 for shipping brands. Rye flour selling in small parcels at $3 40@4 20 for common to choice. Whisky in fair demand; sales 750 bbls at 18c. Wheat dull and heavy and fully 1c ⅌ bushel lower; sales 2,600 bushels Chicago Spring at $1 19; 12,500 bushels Milwaukee club at $1 21@1 24. Rye quiet at 67@70c. Barley in request at 63@80c. Corn heavy and about 1c ⅌ bushel lower; sales 31,000 bushels at 68@69c for old mixed. Oats dull and heavy; sales at 35½@37½c for Western, and 35@37c for State. Pork dull and heavy; sales 640 bbls at $17 75 for mess and $13 for prime. Beef dull. Bacon dull. Lard heavy and lower; sales 250 bbls at 9⅞@10¼c for No. 1 to prime. Cheese steady at 9@10c.

CINCINNATI, February 2, P. M.

Flour unchanged but demand less active; small sales. Wheat in fair demand; prime red $1, white $1 05@1 12. Oats 27c, and in good demand. Rye and barley very dull, with trifling demand. Whisky 14c, and in good demand. Provisions quiet and dull; not much doing. Mess pork can be bought at $16 75@17. Lard dull; 400 tierces prime city sold at 9⅞c. Groceries firm and in good demand; sales 280 hhds sugar at 5½@7¼c; 600 bags coffee at 13@13¾c, and 700 bbls molasses at 30c.

THE KENTUCKY RANGERS.—Captain Benson Ormsby, the commander of the new cavalry company from the country, which was mustered into the State Guard on Saturday, will leave for Frankfort to-day to procure the necessary orders. Orderly H. W. Simcoe has called a meeting of the company at Gilman's for Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for drill.

THE WEBB SISTERS.—These young favorites closed their engagement at the Louisville Theater Saturday evening, and will leave to-day for Milwaukee, where an engagement awaits them.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.—This tribunal will convene at 9 o'clock this morning, at which time his honor Judge Muir will decide upon the proposition to adjourn the present civil term.

We are indebted to Messrs. Nunemacher and Sullivan, of the Adams Express Company, for late papers.

HOW LOLA MONTEZ WAS CONVERTED.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

Lola often said that she owed her conversion to reading Adrew Jackson Davis's first book, while in the wilds of California, for it gave her a curiosity to study the Bible, which before then she had never read.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD. Yesterday will be remembered as a white day in the history of the Republic. The President signed the bill for the admission of Kansas, the thirty-fourth State in our glorious and perpetual Union; and the Senate, by the imposing majority of thirty-seven to fourteen, passed the Pacific railroad bill sent up from the House, but amended, so as to provide for three roads, instead of two, from the valley of the Mississippi to the Pacific ocean. The bill, as passed by the Senate, was amended in many of its details; but under the pressure of the great public necessities which call for its passage, the disagreeing votes of the two branches of Congress will be brought into accord by committees of conference, or in some other of the parliamentary modes. It is impossible that a measure should fail, which is urged forward by such an overwhelming public sentiment, and which is enforced by such pressing motives of national policy.

The progress of this discussion has, we believe, satisfied the country, that the idea of a single road to the Pacific is inadequate and imperfect. Our coast upon that ocean is so long, and we are so advancing upon it, not in column, but by our whole latitudinal line of empire, that one road must be partial and unsatisfactory. The true idea is, not that of a bridge to the Pacific but of a complete occupation, from the North to the South, of the whole territory which separates us from it. The two-road bill of the House was a good one, but the three-road bill of the Senate is better still. The magnitude of the measure, instead of being an objection to it, is, at this juncture, its best recommendation. It is just what is needed to steady men's minds and attach them to the Government by a stroke of energy and vigor, at a great crisis. It illustrates and enforces, to the dullest apprehension, the beneficial power of a united national Government, in contrast with the feebleness of separated and petty States. It invigorates the sentiment of American nationality, inspires pride in the resources of the country, and diverts the public attention from hateful discords, by the contemplation of great achievements of peace and civilization, which better befit this new continent and this new age.

But while in this sense, and for such purpose, the bill as passed by the Senate is a large one, it is not of a magnitude which need inspire alarm. The total maximum money appropriation of the bill is only $121,000,000, a mere bagatelle, when it is considered that it is to be spread over a term of fifteen years, at the least, and that it is not a gift, but a loan, or an investment, paying abundantly in direct postal and military services to the Government, and not less in its indirect development of national resources. It is not the fourth part of the sum spent by the English in the Crimean war, to avert a danger to their East Indian possessions, which was at all events, remote. It does not compare with the sum paid for Louisiana, making allowance for our increase of wealth within sixty years. It is less than the sum which its conspicuous opposers have repeatedly offered within the last thirteen years to pay for Cuba, which was only desired for sectional aggrandizement, but which would be for the nation an apple of discord, and a source of weakness, rather than of strength. It is not quite double the amount which has been invested in railroads by the single State of Massachusetts. It is only an eighth part of what the whole country has already invested in this greatest of modern improvements.

The final passage of this bill will be hailed with acclamation. It will stimulate business, by making a market for iron, for machinery, for labor, and for the food and clothing of laborers. It will restore confidence and revive the drooping industrial energies of the country. The scheme of development which it effectuates has been long matured in the public mind, and has been adopted in the platform of all the national parties. It is now the fullness of time for its realization.
National Republican.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 2.

The State convention is the leading topic of conversation here. Several members of the Legislature have gone home to prepare for the coming election of delegates. Volunteer companies are forming throughout the State to be ready for any emergency except coercion.

BOSTON, Feb. 2.

G. H. Sprague and G. G. Mann, of the firm of Sprague, Mann, & Co., dry goods dealers, were before the police court to-day and held in $15,000 bail, each on a charge of attempting to defraud their creditors in New York and Boston, of whom they had purchased goods. It is alleged that their recent purchases amounted to $50,000 and they now account for but $25,000.

BOSTON, Feb. 2.

The House went into secret session to-day to consider the bill appropriating $100,000 to the emergency funds. It is supposed that an important communication has been received, as the bill passed under a suspension of the rules.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.

Governor Fairbanks yesterday appointed the following gentlemen as Commissioners from the State of Vermont to meet similar Commissioners from other States on the 4th of February. The delegation left New York last night for Washington. Ex-Gov. Hibbard Hall, Lieut. Gov. Levi Underwood, Gen. H. Henry Baxter, Hon. L. A. Chittenden, Hon. B. D. Harris. Governor Fairbanks is at the Astor House.

LOUISVILLE JOURNAL

☞We learn from the Memphis Avalanche that Capt. Hicks King, of the steamer Golden State, was arraigned before the Recorder yesterday for entertaining passengers while his boat was in port, and fined $50. At Memphis steamboatmen are not permitted to entertain passengers on their boats more than six hours before the time of departure.

THE FLAG OF THE UNION STILL FLYING IN NORTH ALABAMA—National Salute Fired, and Yancey Burned in Effigy.—The workingmen of the town of Athens, Alabama, as we learn from a letter written there on the 29th January, and published in the Nashville Democrat, met in the public square on Saturday night last, and "fired thirty-three guns for the Union and that flag that still waves on the court-house, our enemies at Montgomery and Disunionists everywhere notwithstanding." They then paid a visit to Gen. Houston, who had just returned from Washington, where he many years represented the Athens (Ala.) District in the House. The Nashville Democrat's correspondent says:

The General received the Union men in his usual happy style. He hopes that this glorious Union may still be preserved by the working Union men, and that they may still work in the Union, and find plenty of brave hearts and willing hands to help in every time of need. On taking leave of the General, he was saluted with a volley of musketry and three cheers for the Union.

On return to headquarters the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Union and workingmen of Athens, return our sincere thanks to the Union and workingmen of South Nashville for their kind and generous feelings toward us of Athens, and to all Union and workingmen in every State in this glorious Republic, and especially to those of Tennessee, for to her belongs the banner of defence.

We had all the town in the greatest excitement by the burning of the effigy of Yancey on Saturday night, Jan. 26.

THE RHINOCEROS—Its Peculiar Means of Detecting the Approach of Man.—As these animals depend much upon smell for their existence and safety, it is necessary to advance upon them from the leeward side, if the aim be to get close without being discovered. In pursuit they always trust for guidance to the same sense, and may be heard forcibly inspiring the air when they have lost the scent of the object they are following. The ticks and other insects with which they are covered supply them with another means of knowledge, inasmuch as they attract a number of birds, which sit quietly picking them off when nothing strange is in sight, but fly away when any object excites their alarm. So well does the rhinoceros understand this that he goes on feeding with the greatest confidence while the birds are perched on his back; but the moment they fly, the huge animal raises his head and turns it in all directions to catch the scent. Whether he accomplishes this or not, he generally feels so uncertain of his position, from the flight of his companions, that he moves to some other locality.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY AT GILLEN'S LANDING.—We last night learned the particulars of a most shocking shooting affray which occurred on Friday last at Gillen's landing, about 110 miles below this city on the river, between 'Squire John Gillen, and a man named John Flournoy. It seems the parties previously had some misunderstanding about the purchase of some stock, and meeting at the landing as the steamer Mears was coming in, they resumed the quarrel, when Flournoy drew a revolver and fired at Gillen, the ball missing its aim, and hitting a man named Greggs, standing by, killing him almost instantly. Gillen then drew a Derringer pistol, and fired at Flournoy, the ball entering the left arm, shattering the bone. Flournoy returned the fire, the ball hitting Gillen in the breast, and was extracted from the back. Gillen was alive when our informant left, but it was said he could not survive. The affair has created a good deal of excitement in the vicinity, the parties being well known and old citizens.—Memphis Enq., Jan. 30.

Effect of the Eclipse on the Arabs—The Arabs generally received the announcement of the late solar eclipse with incredulity; but when they saw the prediction fulfilled, they affected indifference, in order not to acknowledge the superiority of the Europeans. But a celebrated Marabout, well known for his hostility to France, had taken upon himself to declare that the prediction of the Christians would come to nothing, and that there would be no eclipse. When the eclipse came on, the crowd turned reproachful glances on the Marabout, who assured them that "the sun would not be covered entirely," but would continue to shine. When the luminary was completely hidden, the enraged Mussulmans began to throw stones at him, and would have killed him had he not succeeded in making his escape.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

THE CONTEST IN VIRGINIA.—The news received here to-night from Virginia, in regard to the election soon to be held there, for delegates to the State Convention, which has been called to decide the Secession question, indicates that a majority of the voters of the Old Dominion will array themselves on the side of the Union. The Secession members of Congress from that State are becoming much alarmed, and they have telegraphed their friends there to-day that many of the Government clerks are flooding Virginia with copies of the late speech of Sherrard Clemens, and other Union documents, and that they must endeavor at once to counteract the effect of these patriotic appeals.—Philadelphia Press.

Major Anderson's Supplies.—Before Major Anderson transferred his command from Fort Moultrie to Fort Sumter, he was supplied with provisions under contract, from Charleston. Since the recent understanding with Gov. Pickens, the terms and extent of which have not yet been officially communicated to the War Department, the old arrangement has been resumed, and he is now furnished as heretofore. His letters are received and forwarded regularly, and in order that it may be known immediately here whether perfect communication is kept up, a daily report from the Fort is made to Government.

Malefactor's Blood a Cure for Epilepsy.—In Denmark, though the Danes are well-informed in general, a foolish notion prevails that epilepsy is curable by drinking the blood of an executed malefactor. Capital punishment in Denmark is by decapitation by sword and block, and when an execution takes place, crowds of epileptics stand cup in hand around the scaffold ready to quaff the red blood as it flows from the still quivering body of the malefactor.

The Pensacola Mails.—The Mobile Advertiser says, that notwithstanding the recent order from the Department, the Postmaster at Pensacola will continue to receive, forward, and distribute such letters and papers as may come to his office. The old mail contractors between Mobile and Pensacola will also continue to perform their services as heretofore. For the present, however, the Advertiser recommends that letters designed for Pensacola be sent to Warrington, which office is not yet under the ban of the Department.

JAPANESE SOAP!

JOHN F. GUNKEL & CO.'S

DETERSIVE AND ERASIVE

SOAP,

Louisville, Ky.

WE offer this Soap to the public with the full assurance that, if the directions given are carried out, it will save time, labor, and money. All we ask is a fair trial; then let it stand upon its own merits. Among other advantages of this over other Washing Soaps, the following may be mentioned:

1. This Soap is warranted not to injure the fabric.
2. But one-half the time and labor will be required to do a washing by using this Soap in preference to any other.
3. The clothes need but little rubbing, and, in most cases, no boiling.
4. For washing hands it is greatly superior to any common Soap, as it does not chap, but has a tendency to soften the skin.
6. It cannot be surpassed for removing Ink, Tar, and Grease Spots, also for cleaning Paints.
7. The superiority of this Soap consists in its not containing any excess of Alkalies, and the materials used rendering it more mild than any other known Washing Soap.
7. It is undoubtedly the best Family Soap extant, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction, or the money will be refunded.

☞All orders sent to the undersigned through the postoffice, or given our wagons, will meet with prompt attention. [s17 d3f] JOHN F. GUNKEL & CO.

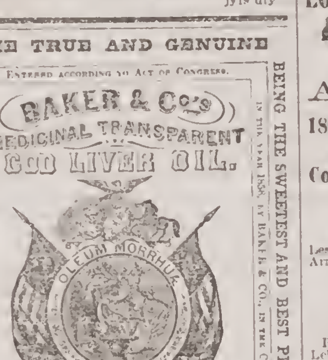
THE TRUE AND GENUINE

UNSURPASSED IN QUALITY AND EFFECTS



BEING THE SWEETEST AND BEST PREPARED

Its use, if fairly tried, will soon restore the tone of the digestive organs, invigorate the blood, give general robustness to the figure, and add energy to the mind and nervous system. Its value has been remarkably evidenced by its wonderful restorative powers, when ordinary tonics had been vainly exhausted. It affords nourishment to the body when no other can be borne, and furnishes the frame with fat in a truly remarkable manner.

For CONSUMPTION and BRONCHITIS,
For SCROFULA in all its developments,
For WEAKNESS, WASTING, and every form of DEBILITY, its curative properties are unrivalled.

It may be taken without disrelish by the most delicate patient, and retained without effort in the most sensitive stomach. Its superiority in this and other important characteristics at eminences has guaranteed for it the commendation of the most eminent Physicians throughout the States: the written testimony of the faculty of the best medical schools; the Professors of the

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA,
JEFFERSON COLLEGE OF PHILADELPHIA,
PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF MEDICINE, and others.

Invalids should be careful to purchase oil of undoubted reputation if they desire the most active and immediate advantages of the remedy.
